

A Simple Life on Deterior

Websites - bracketed	Apps - A Number of Apps, to be composed and used even on cell phones	Software and Free Software - the process of creative type - from Music, to Ubuntu, even Soulreacher, Aesthetic Regimes as well	Life and forms of life around Libraries, from PCF to film-schools in Havana, to Gutenberge institute to even Avant-Gardeism in Soviet Union and more radio and IMAX-I - from journalism to Warren Montag's infinite production of concepts - it is all also philosophy
Films, Games, Radio, Living Architecture, and philosophy, even theory, and Classes, with Jazz as accompaniment - like a minimalist daily life - and even social	Soundconnect, and a number of other inventions - imagine playing a game in relaxed ways and making it to a friend's house, where the process of the negotiation on the door, is	Like a typewriter which is guided by the assistant on Felix Guattari, which is Deleuzian - how to shift from one segment to the other, and keep talking.	An Althusserian economics for analytics which then becomes an interface - such hubs then on Winzip - which then is downloading films and chatting - so many worlds,

networking which allows you to meet people, talk and share through this process.	simply a call away. Telephone directories mean that, and Soundconnect, Cinematheque and connects on it, will be like a simple game.		but shared as one world - this then requires us to be Hebrew, and understand Arabic - which means finally to know that the conceptual object is also a real object - that the concept of history is also a research page on history - Libraries.
